

Mumbai Data Center (MUM-1)

One of India's busiest and most successful data centers, MUM-1 is in Navi Mumbai, where international submarine cables connect with the Indian subcontinent. The 50,000 ft², 2.3 MW carrier-neutral data center operates to the highest standards, with extensive security and certification. It houses 700 customers, with rich network, cloud and service provider ecosystems including multiple on-site carriers, all major clouds, over 200+ ISPs and three major Internet Exchanges.

“ With Iron Mountain, we have a highly available, redundant computing environment for the cloud ... that helps us meet customer demand today and allows us to expand quickly to support business growth tomorrow. ”
